It's all about being a friend of the library

Friends add to library services with funds, energy and time.

The Howey-in-the-Hills Friends of the Library, a not for profit corporation, was organized in 2003 to enhance library services by supplementing the basic services and programs provided by the library budget.

The Friends has been involved with smaller library projects while the Howey-in-the-Hills Library Foundation has historically provided funds for larger library projects.

Through the years, the Friends organization has assisted with the summer reading program, sponsored activity days and educational programs. Books and other items have been purchased.

Funds have been raised through book sales and generous donations by members of the community and civic organizations.

For 2010 we want to increase our circle of friends and thereby offer even more support to our wonderful Marianne Beck Memorial Library.
